

Quantum Link

Play as a spaceship struggling to survive in a hostile solar system without colliding into any of the planets on the orbits, or the sun's deadly flares. Your secret weapon - the quantum link into inside an atom, where you can jump from one orbital to another, but where dangerous electrons lurk.

Press SPACE to start and to switch between the atomic and solar system levels. Move on the orbit with LEFT and RIGHT, and from orbital to orbital with UP and DOWN. Restart with space. Press ALT + F4 to quit.
